Celebrate World Social Work Day – Social Work - Making a World of Difference

The International Federation of Social Workers will celebrate its 2nd World Social Work Day with the theme “Making a World of Difference”. For years, Canadian social workers have contributed to making difference in families, communities and countries.

This year, CASW is pleased to highlight three great Canadian social workers who have made a difference on the global front: Dick Ramsay, Monique Auffrey and Gayle Gilchrist-James. Please read the attached articles to learn why these social workers are great examples of national and international leadership. Also, we have developed an article that reviews CASW’s activities within the international social work community. To read more go to
