

IFSW United Nations Commission

Zhe Wang (Yolanda)

Zhe Wang graduated with a Master's degree in Social Sciences at the Hong Kong Baptist University. As a result of working for the All China Women Federation, she has experience in the area of Women and Children's Social Work and brings that important knowledge and skills to the table. Her commitment has led her to gain the important qualification: Qualification of Social Worker.

Ms. Wang has been a part of the China Association of Social Workers (CASW) in the role of Executive Assistant, and is mainly responsible for projects to forward education in Social Work. She has also been promoting the incorporation of Social Work into public charity and Corporation Social Responsibility (CSR) – a great initiative. Ms. Wang also provides valuable insights into policy formulation of the development of Social Work, as well as some programs that been launched by the CASW. She has proven herself an irreplaceable asset of the CASW family.