Meet the Author's Session

Meet the Author Event Agreement

- Participating individuals must be authors of published book(s)—including self-published social work works. Works in a variety of genres, writing styles and for all audiences are welcome.
- Participation by authors in this event is by application only. The official application must be completed and returned to IFSW by June 20th, 2020. The application must be accompanied by a brief bio and a list of titles published by the author.
- Authors selected for the program must attend the event. The event will be run on Zoom and the selected authors will be send details on how and when to connect. The event may not necessarily be in your time zone.
- IFSW does not endorse, promote, or spotlight any one author to the exclusion of others.
- Participation in the event does not guarantee that the author's work(s) will be added to the IFSW's collection.
- The IFSW Secretariat will select the authors that will participate in the live event. The selection will be made on basis of providing a equal spread across the differing regions. The selected authors will have the opportunity to address the audience during a 5 minute presentation. They can discuss their social work books, writing experiences and answer questions from the audience. The sessions will last 60 minute. IFSW Secretariat will notify applicants of the selection decision.
- There will be no admission fee charged to authors or those attending the Meet the Authors event. This is a free event and open to all participants of the conference.
- IFSW is not responsible for any expenses or other participation cost incurred by the authors participating in the event.
- IFSW will not act as a sales agent.

I have read and understand the rules for the IFSW Global Social Work Online Conference titled: The 2020 to 2030 Social Work Global Agenda: Co-Building Social Transformation.
