

CURRICULUM MAP

IFSW SUSTAINABILITY WORKBOOKS TO CSWE COMPETENCIES

Created by Michaela Rinkel and Meredith C.F. Powers 7/2020

CSWE Competency	How connects	Chapter	How addresses
1 – Demonstrate Ethical and Professional Behavior	Expansion of how we define role of social work	V1 Chpt. 1 – Communities, social sustainability and, social work practice in the face of disaster	What are the roles of social workers in disasters?
		V1 Chpt. 8 – Community development intervention guidelines for communities affected by natural disasters
		V1 Chpt 17 – Building sustainable communities through social work in emergency/ disaster situations: Learning from the Association of Social Work Professionals of Spain
		V1 Chpt. 6 – Greening social work through an experiential learning framework	How social work models and practices need to change
		V1 Chpt. 21 – Comparing model representations of sustainability: Tools for social workers	Exploration of various sustainability models
		V2 Chpt 4 – Advocating for social and environmental justice and human rights: Listening to Indigenous voices	The role of social workers in advocacy for environmental justice
		V3 Chpt. 1 – Building social and environmental sustainability through social entrepreneurship in social work practice	Entrepreneurial role of social work
		V3 Chpt. 14 – One health: How the health of the oceans and humans connect	Role of social work in protection of natural world
		V3 Chpt. 17 – The method of transdisciplinary teamwork for realizing the sustainable development goals	Necessity of social work to bring perspective to sustainability
	How values of social work include attention to the natural environment	V1 Chpt 5 – Sustainability and ecological citizenship	Need to expand values to include animal rights and focus on ecological rights
		V1 Chpt 16 – Social and environmental sustainability as ethical values to guide social work practice	How sustainability is consistent with social work values.
		V3 Chpt. 9 – Promoting environmental sustainability to and through responsible/sustainable tourism	Connection between social work values and sustainable industry practices

		V3 Chpt. 16 – How can the institution of social workers promote sustainability? Practice examples from the Spanish General Council of Social Work	Sustainability as an ethical issue for social work profession
	Need for practitioners to develop sustainable worldview	V2 Chpt 1 – Developing critical self-awareness to incorporate sustainability into worldviews	Understanding worldview as key to sustainability
		V2 Chpt 2 – Holistic ecosocial work: A model for transformative change through being, knowing and doing	Developing an ecosocial worldview through reflection
		V2 Chpt. 16 – Teaching environmental empathy in the social work curriculum	Developing empathy for the environment
		V2 Chpt. 17 – Reconnecting with the Earth	Enhance connection to the natural world through self-awareness exercises
		V2 Chpt. 18 – The mighty powers of mud: Eco-therapeutic practices for personal and professional development
2- Engage Diversity and Difference in Practice	Diversity of experiences defines how experience climate change effects	V1 Chpt 1 – Communities, social sustainability and, social work practice in the face of disaster	Diverse experiences after natural disaster in Barbados
		V1 Chpt. 13 – Gentrification and displacement: An environmental justice challenge for social work in urban environments	Exploring effects of gentrification on different groups
		V1 Chpt. 14 – Forced migration and the lived experiences of refugees	Experiences of refugees related to climate change
		V2 Chpt. 8 – Social work on social and environmental issues in communities that are under military occupation	How climate change issues are experienced by communities under military occupation
		V2 Chpt. 10 – Partnership approaches to address the impacts of environmental, social, and economic injustices on mental wellbeing with the Traveller community in Ireland	How climate change is experienced by Traveller population in Ireland, attention to mental health
		V2 Chpt. 12 – Aging and sustainability	How climate change issues are experienced by elder population
		V2 Chpt. 15 – Promoting mental health: Engagement with the environment as a source of solutions and inspiration	Impacts of climate change on mental health
		V3 Chpt. 5 – Gender, environmental degradation and eco-feminism	Differential impacts of climate change based on gender
	Exploring how different ways of knowing impact understanding	V2 Chpt 1 – Developing critical self-awareness to incorporate sustainability into worldviews	Relationship between colonization and injustice for Indigenous communities
		V2 Chpt 2 – Holistic ecosocial work: A model for transformative change through being, knowing and doing

	of sustainability	V2 Chpt. 4 – Advocating for social and environmental justice and human rights: Listening to Indigenous voices	Understanding the role of culture and climate change
		V2 Chpt. 5 – Towards an integration of Indigenous knowledge and social work strategies in coping with climate change: An Afro-sensed approach	How indigenous knowledge in Africa can shape understanding of climate change and sustainability
		V2 Chpt. 6 – Critical Indigenous Pedagogy of Place: Claiming place at multiple levels in sustainability and social work practice	Understanding relationship to place as necessary
		V2 Chpt. 7 – Wise practices with Indigenous Australians: Adapting to a changing planet	Indigenous experiences related to spirituality and sustainability
3 – Advance Human Rights and Social, Economic, and Environmental Justice	Understanding environmental justice	V1 Chpt. 5 – Sustainability and ecological citizenship	Expanding understanding of environmental injustice to ecological injustice
		V1 Chpt. 18 – Using social media to communicate environmental justice in rural spaces	Increase understanding of environmental justice
	Examples of environmental injustice	V1 Chpt. 1 – Communities, social sustainability and, social work practice in the face of disaster	Environmental injustice experienced in disaster
		V1 Chpt. 12 – Water is life	Environmental injustice related to water rights in Bolivia
		V1 Chpt. 13 – Gentrification and displacement: An environmental justice challenge for social work in urban environments	Housing as environmental justice
		V1 Chpt. 20 – Threadbare: The role of social work in addressing ecological injustices in the fashion industry	Environmental and ecological injustices in the fashion industry
		V2 Chpt. 4 – Advocating for social and environmental justice and human rights: Listening to Indigenous voices	Environmental injustice experienced by American Indigenous populations
		V2 Chpt. 8 – Social work on social and environmental issues in communities that are under military occupation	Environmental injustice experienced by Palestinians
		V2 Chpt. 10 – Partnership approaches to address the impacts of environmental, social, and economic injustices on mental wellbeing with the Traveller community in Ireland	Environmental injustice experienced by Travellers
		V3 Chpt. 2 – Summer harvest: Lessons from the garden	Food injustice
V3 Chpt. 5 – Gender, environmental degradation and eco-feminism	Gender based environmental injustice

		V3. Chpt. 6 – The role of social workers in promoting sustainable waste management in developing countries	Environmental injustice related to waste
		V3. Chpt. 7 – Hydraulic fracturing and Indigenous rights in the Heartland of the USA: Lessons for environmental social workers	Fracturing as environmental injustice
		V3. Chpt. 10 – Legacies of colonization and contradictions of global environmental governance	Environmental injustices furthered by global climate governance models
		V3 Chpt. 12 – Innovation in environmental impact assessments: Incorporating the Signs of Safety approach in social impact assessments of acid mine drainage in West Rand, South Africa	Acid mine drainage
		V3 Chpt. 13 – Community transformation for climate justice in Bolivia	Experiences in Bolivia
		V3 Chpt. 15 – Preserving and protecting forests and forest dependent communities in India by implementing the Forest Rights Act of 2006	Environmental injustice related to forests in India
	Sustainability connects to human rights	V1 Chpt. 9 – The role of social workers in promoting sustainable community and environmental development	Connecting SDGs and economic development to human rights
		V1 Chpt. 14 – Forced migration and the lived experiences of refugees	Migration as a human rights issue
4 – Engage in Practice-informed Research and Research-informed Practice	Examples of using research in area of sustainability	V1 Chpt. 2 – Youth and the green economy	Evaluation of youth employment project in Tennessee USA
		V1 Chpt. 4 – Exploring the integrative well-being model	Community based research in the Philippines
		V1 Chpt. 7 – The social work change agent role: Building capacity in rural communities for sustainable natural resource management	Community based research in Zimbabwe
		V1 Chpt. 13 – Gentrification and displacement: An environmental justice challenge for social work in urban environments	Community based research in Portland, USA
		V2 Chpt. 6 – Critical Indigenous Pedagogy of Place: Claiming place at multiple levels in sustainability and social work practice	Creating a practice model out of community-based research
		V2 Chpt. 11 – Charting strategies to social sustainability: Lessons from community environmental struggles	Research classifying sustainability interventions
		V2 Chpt. 13 – Youth empowerment through interdisciplinary outreach	Evaluation of youth science camp project in Tennessee USA

		V2 Chpt. 14 – Environmental sustainability through interdisciplinary partnerships with community-based interventions	Evaluation of interdisciplinary project in Cyprus
		V3 Chpt. 14 – One health: How the health of the oceans and humans connect	Applying research on oceans/waterways to social work practice
5 – Engage in Policy Practice	Social works role in developing alternative economic models to address sustainability	V1 Chpt. 3 – Agitating through an alternate economy: Social work, sustainability, and the circular economy	What is the role of social work in expanding understanding of economies
		V1 Chpt. 11 – Promoting sustainability by a paradigm shift towards commons	Need for policy shift toward commons economy
		V3 Chpt. 8 – Sharing to flourish: A degrowth approach to provisioning for prosperity	Economic policy impacts on systems and alternative models
		V3 Chpt. 11 – Bridging environmental policy with welfare: A task proposal for social workers to engage with ecosystem services	Ecosystem services as an alternative economic practice
	Advocacy	V1 Chpt. 18 – Using social media to communicate environmental justice in rural spaces	E-advocacy for environmental justice
	Role of policy in sustainability	V1 Chpt. 1 – Communities, social sustainability and, social work practice in the face of disaster	Need for policy planning related to disaster preparedness and recovery
		V1 Chpt. 13 – Gentrification and displacement: An environmental justice challenge for social work in urban environments	Effects of urban gentrification policies
		V2 Chpt. 3 – Challenges of a sustainable development approach to social work in a Danish welfare state context	Relationship between policies and greening social work practice
		V3 Chpt. 4 – Transforming education: Self-directed learning to foster imagination and create social and environmental sustainability	Relationship between educational policy and sustainability
		V3 Chpt. 10 – Legacies of colonization and contradictions of global environmental governance	How global policies impact inequality and sustainability
		V3 Chpt. 15 – Preserving and protecting forests and forest dependent communities in India by implementing the Forest Rights Act of 2006	How policy implementation effects forest rights
	6 – Engage with Individuals,	Each of the referenced chapters deals	V1 Chpt. 1 – Communities, social sustainability and, social work practice in the face of disaster	Planning and intervention following disaster in Barbados

Families, Groups, Organizations, and Communities	with each of the aspects of practice - engagement, assessment, intervention and evaluation through presentation of practices/ techniques/ models to further sustainability	V1 Chpt. 3 – Agitating through an alternate economy: Social work, sustainability, and the circular economy	Determining community needs and applying circular economy to address
		V1 Chpt. 4 – Exploring the integrative well-being model	Community project in the Philippines helping a community improve well-being
		V1 Chpt. 7 – The social work change agent role: Building capacity in rural communities for sustainable natural resource management	Designing and implementing community-based interventions related to sustainable livelihoods
		V1 Chpt. 8 – Community development intervention guidelines for communities affected by natural disaster	Community based disaster interventions and models
		V1 Chpt. 10 – Sustainable wellbeing and social work with children: Promoting our connectedness with nature through nature assisted interventions	Ecosocial work with children
		V1 Chpt 17 – Building sustainable communities through social work in emergency/ disaster situations: Learning from the Association of Social Work Professionals of Spain	Disaster protocols
		V1 Chpt. 18 – Using social media to communicate environmental justice in rural spaces	Project working with community through e-advocacy
		V1 Chpt. 19 – Promoting community and environmental sustainability: Developing strategies that will combine sustainable social, economic, and environmental development	Steps to carry out community-based sustainability project
		V2 Chpt. 6 – Critical Indigenous Pedagogy of Place: Claiming place at multiple levels in sustainability and social work practice	Using place-based model to intervene
		V2 Chpt. 11 – Charting strategies to social sustainability: Lessons from community environmental struggles	Techniques to assess and intervene related to power structures in community environmental struggles
V2 Chpt. 13 – Youth empowerment through interdisciplinary outreach	Interventions with youth around environment
V2 Chpt. 14 – Environmental sustainability through interdisciplinary partnerships with community-based interventions	How to carry out an interdisciplinary project

		V2 Chpt. 15 – Promoting mental health: Engagement with the environment as a source of solutions and inspiration	Environmental based interventions
		V2 Chpt. 17 – Reconnecting with Earth	Interventions to enhance connection to natural world
		V2 Chpt. 18 – The mighty powers of mud: Eco-therapeutic practices for personal and professional development	Ecotherapy
		V3 Chpt. 1 – Building social and environmental sustainability through social entrepreneurship in social work practice	Using entrepreneurship as practice model
		V3 Chpt. 12 – Innovation in environmental impact assessments: Incorporating the Signs of Safety approach in social impact assessments of acid mine drainage in West Rand, South Africa	Using Social Impact Assessment and Signs of Safety Model to plan and deliver interventions
		V3 Chpt. 17 – The method of transdisciplinary teamwork for realizing the sustainable development goals	Implementing transdisciplinary partnerships in teams