

IFSW United Nations Commission

Shenae Osborn

Shenae Osborn is a student representative for the International Federation of Social Workers. As a social work graduate student at Fordham University, she is an active member of multiple UN NGOs as a United Nations intern. Shenae has co-authored two book chapters in an upcoming book on the United Nations. Shenae is most passionate about international policy especially as it pertains to women's issues and mental health.