

IFSW United Nations Commission

Main area of work at the UN: Refugees/migration and children issues
Representative bio:

Hamed Olamaee is working with Iran Association of Social Workers since 2011 on different positions e.g. head of international committee and office coordinator mostly on voluntary basis. He got second most votes from members of the association national wide in 2018 and has been elected as a member of board of directors since then.

He holds a MS in Rehabilitation Administration and BS in Social Work. His MA thesis was on "The effect of self-care, Swedish pattern, on resiliency and job satisfaction of rehabilitation social workers in SWO of Tehran".

Hamed Olamaee is currently working in the office of UNHCR in Tehran while he has been working with refugees, children, and persons with disabilities for more than a decade with international organizations, NGOs and the government. He has worked in different natural crisis and actively involved in organizing and facilitating workshops on role of social workers in crisis and other topics in Iran and outside Iran. He is speaking in Persian/Farsi and English fluently while he can communicate in Arabic, Russian and Turkish.

Hamed Olamaee has visited most of the countries in Central and Western Asia including Afghanistan, Iraq, Turkmenistan, and Syria and gained some experiences regarding this part of the world.

Since early 2019, Hamed Olamaee has joined UN commission, focusing on refugees/migration and children issues.