

Charles Rutikanga

Charles Rutikanga is a lecturer/researcher in the Department of Social Sciences /Option Social Work at the University of Rwanda (UR). He also doubles as a Board member of the UR Centre for Social Work Education and Practice. He is concluding his PhD studies at the University of Vienna. He obtained a Master of Social Work and Social Administration from Uganda Christian University and a Bachelor's degree from UR. He served as a social work practitioner for 3 years in Health Poverty Action - Rwanda Chapter from 2006-2009 and coordinated the implementation of several research projects including PROSOWO projects I and II in 2011-2014 and 2016-2019, respectively. He was also involved in implementing other projects such Synthesizing Indigenous and International Social Work Theory and Practice in Rwanda Project (2014-2019) and the Linnaeus Palme Project from 2015 to date. He benefited from different lecturer exchange programmes at Tulane University, USA (2011), Makerere University, Uganda (2012), Carinthia University of Applied Sciences, Austria (2012) and Gothenburg University, Sweden (2015). He has been a member of the organizing committees of several international conferences and presented scientific papers in various forums in Rwanda, Austria, Australia, Ghana, Kenya, Uganda, Sweden, South Africa, Tanzania Rwanda and Burundi. His research interests include social work, childhood and child protection as well as social development and indigenous social work practice.