

Position Title IFSW Representative to an UN Headquarters

Context In each region (Africa, Asia and the Pacific, Europe, North America, Latin America) there is a United Nations Headquarters (New York) regional offices (Geneva, Nairobi and Vienna) and Economic Commission Centers (Santiago and Bangkok). For each of them, IFSW aims to be represented by a Main Representative and if possible, a team of representatives.

Task The IFSW representative to the United Nations is responsible for realizing the agreed strategies within their nominated UN location. They are expected to develop partnerships with UN stakeholders to promote and develop actions and statements on relevant social work contributions; coordinating with the IFSW UN Main Representative and the IFSW UN Commissioner. The IFSW policy papers, the global agenda and the various statements shall be understood as guiding orientation in this work.

Description of the position

With IFSW UN Commission

Contribute to a written report for the general meeting of IFSW and attend, as far as possible, IFSW global or regional meetings.

With IFSW members

Establish partnerships with UN Agencies so that IFSW members work jointly with UN agencies locally, nationally and regionally, bridging engagement between the community's aspirations, the SGDs and other UN agendas.

IFSW representative team

Communicate and work cooperatively with the team and the Main Representative. Take initiatives to and support the preparation of statements on UN issues and related matters.

Maintain an active commitment to the global goals of IFSW.

UN

Advocate for and promote social work at the UN.

Build awareness on a social work perspective in the UN's agendas.

Create multi-level interventions to build knowledge, information and visibility of social work within United Nations structures.

Ensure that the statements and work with the United Nations and partners is consistent with the policies of IFSW and the Global Definition of Social Work.

Attend meetings of the IFSW representatives of this UN site.

Contribute to an UN NGO committee on an issue that is relevant for Social Work and attend meetings with other NGOs in a representative position.

Prepare, in collaboration with the main representative and the IFSW Commissioner, written statements to the UN outlining IFSW's position.

Give oral statements and contribute to discussions and debates in accordance with the formal policies of IFSW.

Support the evaluation of IFSW policy papers.

Requirements

As a non-governmental organization (NGO) representative, it is necessary to have some flexibility of time in order to carry out the responsibilities of the position and to pursue the tasks involved in a consistent manner. A background and education in social work is required. Applicants must be a member of the national organization of social workers and IFSW and in good standing.

Identification with, and commitment to, the principles, purposes and policy statements of IFSW and following the instruction of the 'Guidelines for IFSW representatives to the UN'.

Demonstrated international perspective and interests.

Priska Fleischlin, IFSW UN Commissioner, 2019, approved by the IFSW Global Board, April 2019

This is an edition established in January 2019 due the newly established IFSW UN Commission and is based on the approved version by the IFSW General Meeting, Hong Kong, 1996.