

Jill Childs Senior Fellow Higher Education Academy

Jill's work on anti racism has won a number of national awards including, the silver Social Worker of the Year Award for University of the year, the Collaborative Award for Teaching Excellence by Advance HE and the University Alliance Innovation Award, an HE Innovate award. Her upcoming book Mental Health Social Work: A Decolonised approach to Theory and Practice, creates a roadmap examining global approaches to mental health social work. You can find out more about her past work here <https://www.brookes.ac.uk/research/units/hls/projects/anti-racist-university-experience/>