Date: 24 March 2026

The Executive Board of the Professional Association of Social Workers in Romania (ASproAS), convened on 24 March 2026, has formally considered the nomination of Ms. Ana Rădulescu for the position of President of the International Federation of Social Workers (IFSW).

Following deliberation, the Executive Board unanimously endorses her nomination.

The Board recognises Ms. Rădulescu's outstanding contribution to the development of social work at national, European, and global levels, as well as her proven leadership within IFSW, as President of IFSW Europe, and her extensive experience in international and multicultural consortia in social work. Her experience is further strengthened by her collaboration with ministries, her contribution to the development of policy recommendations in the field of social work, and her sustained support to social workers in strengthening social service systems in their countries.

Her capacity to connect policy, social work practice, and the realities of people using services, together with her experience in leading international collaboration, positions her as a highly qualified candidate to lead IFSW.
