

Case officer: Andreas Pedersen Kikvik

Procedure:
Working Committee 2023-2027

Meeting date:

Nomination for the position of Vice President of IFSW Europe

Decision:

The working committee nominates Andreas Kikvik, Senior Adviser at FO, as a candidate for Vice President of IFSW Europe.

Case description

Andreas Kikvik is currently vice president of IFSW Europe. He entered the term of previously elected vice president, and the term is over in June. The election of vice president and president is not done at the same general meeting, and this time the vice president will be elected for 4 years.

Climate and environmental impact (linked to the UN Sustainable Development Goals)

No expected climate and environmental effect.

Gender equality and diversity effect (linked to the UN Sustainable Development Goals)

Ijngen expected gender equality and diversity effect.

Recruitment and retention effect

No expected recruitment and retention effect.

Administrative and financial consequences

Some travel must be expected, but will not be charged to FO's budget.

Recommendation

The working committee nominates Andreas Kikvik, Senior Adviser at FO, as a candidate for Vice President of IFSW Europe.

Attachments: