

ANNOUNCING THE VOICES FOR DEVELOPMENT CONFERENCE

The National Association of Social Workers – South Africa, in association with the International Federation for Social Workers will be hosting The Voices for Development Conference. This conference will enable countries targeted by development policy, their communities and on-the-ground social workers to voice their practical experiences and make recommendations on the Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs) that will succeed the Millennium Development Goals (MDG'S) when they expire in 2015.

Dates: 25 – 27 September 2013

Venue: Sandton Convention
Centre, Johannesburg

We will be sending you regular updates on the conference.

For more information on the conference, contact the conference secretariat on: + 27 (0) 87 080 4983

Or email us on nasw-southafrica@gmail.com or info@naswsa.co.za

