Hamed Olamaee, head of international affairs of Iran Association of Social Workers presented the invitation for the conference of “60 years of social work in Iran” which will be held in 18th and 19th of December 2017 in Tehran from Seyed Hasan Mousavi Chalak, head of Iran Association of Social Workers to Erik Orozaliev, dean of the faculty of social work and practical psychology of the university of Bishkek and the chairman of Kyrgyz republic association of social workers in this meeting.

In the meeting, Olamaee explained a brief history of social work in Iran and explained about the goals of the conference in Tehran which is to analyze social work in Iran in the last 60 years and make a vision for that based on the new definition of social work released by IFSW. He also gave a short description about social work in Iran and Iran Association of Social Workers.

Erik Orozaliev said that Kyrgyz social workers usually go to countries like Canada, Sweden and Denmark to get trainings and get courses and this is the first time that they are being invited to Iran. He expressed his interest about brand new fields for social workers in Iran e.g industrial social work, emergency social work, airlines social work and neighborhoods social service offices and explained that he would be happy to learn about social work in Iran more and could implement it in Kyrgyz Republic.
Almaz Dyikanov, executive director of Association of Social Workers of Kyrgyz Republic, also expressed his interest to take part in the conference and start cooperation with Iran Association of Social Workers.
الگوکیری از ایران به عنوان یک کشور اسلامی پیشرو در مددکاری اجتماعی، جهت پیشرفت مددکاری اجتماعی در کشورش ابراز کرد و ابراز امیدواری نمود تا در سفرش به تهران برای شرکت در کنگره بین المللی 60 سال مددکاری اجتماعی در ایران بتواند توافقنامه همکاری با انجمن مددکاران اجتماعی ایران امضا نماید.