

Colegio de Profesionales del Trabajo Social De Puerto Rico

---

- WHEREAS: The College of Social Work Professionals of Puerto Rico (CPTSPR), entered the International Federation of Social Work (hereinafter FITS) with full rights, duties and responsibilities since Stockholm General Assembly.
- WHEREAS: Since its entry into the IFSW the CPTSPR has maintained its participation and militancy, in the regional organizations associated and affiliated with the IFSW and in the Executive Committee through the Vice president of Latin American and Caribbean Region and in the Co-opted Treasurer Position.
- WHEREAS: The CPTSPR understands the importance of participation in the structures of the IFSW and the need to increase representativeness in the decision-making structures of that organization.
- WHEREAS: Dr. Víctor Iván García Toro, is a collegiate with a broad background in the professional Social Work scenario.
- WHEREAS: Dr. García Toro has been Director of the Department of Social Services at the University of Sao Paulo in Brazil, Director of the Graduate School of Social Work Beatriz Lassalle of the University of Puerto Rico, Administrator of the Administration of Families and Children of the Government of Puerto Rico, President of the Institute of Continuing Education of the Professional Association of Social Work of Puerto Rico and the actual Co-opted treasurer of the International Federation of Social Workers.
- WHEREAS: Dr. García Toro has extensive experience in Social Work Research and has participated as a member in several Editorial Boards.
- THEREFORE: The CPTSPR and its Board of Directors, through the signature of its President, Larry Emil Alicea Rodríguez, nominates Dr. Víctor Iván García Toro to the International Treasury of the International Federation of Workers Social, today March, 24, 2018. In San Juan, Puerto Rico.

Larry Emil Alicea Rodríguez, MTS, JD

President CPTSPR Board of Directors