LETTER OF SUPPORT

Santa Rosa City, Argentina Republic, October 9th, 2017.

Dr. David Jone & Dr. Rory Truell

International Federation of Social Work (IFSW)

We are pleased to communicate you that the Directive Commission of Argentine Federation of Professional Associations of Social Service has decided to support the nomination of SILVANA NOEMÍ MARTÍNEZ for President, International Federation of Social Workers, for 2018-2022 term.

It is important for us to refer to the figure that we are supporting for this nomination. Dr. SILVANA NOEMÍ MARTÍNEZ is a social worker with a high academic profile and proven professional experience. She successfully manages professional organizations in national and local boundaries and also has experience in regional professional organizations as Committee of Professional Organizations of Social Work of South Common Market "MERCOSUR" and Latin America and Caribbean Committee of Professional Organizations of Social Work "COLACATS" She also was unanimously elected for Regional President, Latin America and Caribbean, for 2014-2018 term.

Dr. SILVANA NOEMÍ MARTÍNEZ has also highly valuable human qualities in order to management ability, leadership, motivation, integration of task team, development and execution of strategic projects of medium and long term and programming and execution of short term work plans.

In this sense, we not only are supporting a professional with a great experience in the field of social work, but also we are postulating a figure with international and regional projection, recognized by her participation in numerous events to which she was invited to discourse on.

For these reasons, we explicitly support the nomination of SILVANA NOEMÍ MARTÍNEZ for President, International Federation of Social Workers, for 2018-2022 term.

Best regards,

Lic. Gloria Luoni Pierni
